

Executive Chef Gut Düneburg (m/f/x)

Location: Haren

Working Hours: Full-time employee

Culinary art needs character. Perhaps yours.

Gut Düneburg, a company of the Albers Group, is evolving into a place for enjoyment, relaxation, and special experiences in the heart of the Emsland region.

To achieve this, we are looking for a culinary leader who is eager to take on responsibility, lead a team, and actively help shape the culinary future of Gut Düneburg.

Do you want to do more than just manage an existing kitchen—do you want to leave your own mark? Do you love inspiring people with authentic, regional, and seasonal cuisine and building something special together with your team and our expertise?

Gut Düneburg could be just the right place for your next chapter.

Our cuisine is meant to reflect the region: authentic, seasonal, and rooted in culinary craftsmanship, complemented by Neo-Eurasian influences.

We seek creative interpretations of regional classics, modern country-style cuisine, fresh and light dishes, and a contemporary culture of enjoyment that prioritizes quality and authenticity.

Not trends for the sake of trends. But rather flavor, provenance, and genuine hospitality.

Your Future Role

- + Preparation of varied lunch menus using regional and fresh ingredients
- + Participation in event catering, including finger food, flying desserts and barbecue events
- + Occasionally offering fine dining with multi-course menus at the level of Michelin-starred cuisine
- + Production of sauces & soups (according to recipe)
- + Production of dressings & personal responsibility for the salad buffet
- + Compliance with and working under the given HACCP standards
